

WOMEN READY FOR WAR DUTY

Misses Morgan and Wetmore Plan Emergency Mobilization

GIRLS TO REPLACE MEN UNDER ARMS

Mrs. Van Rensselaer Expects Feminine Element To Be Prepared

A mobilization of women in home, office, farm and factory to prepare them for war duty is to be effected through a new emergency committee, headed by Miss Maude Wetmore and Miss Anne Morgan.

"We hope to organize the women of the country to take the places of the men who may be called to military service," said Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, one of the organization committee members.

"Women are ready to do their part," she said, "but they often fail to do so because of the lack of organization. We are probably the only country in the world where the women are as well as the men mobilized for national service."

Nine Groups of Women
The women will be divided into nine groups, according to their personal preferences. The groups are listed as follows: Social and welfare work, home administration, agriculture, health, medical and nursing, parliamentary, signalling, motor driving and general service. As soon as the weather permits there will be national encampments of women where standardized work along these lines will be done.

The new organization, which is known as the National League for Women's Service, came into existence about two weeks ago in Washington, but when the international emergency arose the work took a new spurt.

Miss Grace Parker, formerly head of the Camp Fire Girls, is to be the national commandant. She started for Washington yesterday to learn the wishes of the administration and to plan with national women leaders there. Upon her return to New York to-day plans for an emergency conference of the women leaders will be announced.

Miss Maude Wetmore is organization chairman of the committee, and other officers are Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. William Cumming Story, Mrs. Coffin Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Willis Martin, Philadelphia; Mrs. Barrett Wendell, Boston; Mrs. C. A. Severance, Minneapolis; Mrs. E. R. Hewitt and Mrs. Louis D. Stillwell, New Jersey; Mrs. J. B. Hammer, St. Louis; Mrs. Lindsey Patterson, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mrs. George Hoadley, Cincinnati; Mrs. Thomas Owen, Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. Hugh Scott, Washington.

Margaret Wilson Invited
Margaret Wilson and Frances Kellor have been invited by the Labor Forum to attend a conference to be held at 32 Union Square at 7 o'clock this evening. Miss Wilson and Miss Kellor, as members of the Americanization League, are preparing a bill for introducing at Albany which would establish compulsory public forums in every school building after school hours as an aid to the assimilation of aliens.
